

161—3.11(216) Mediation. The executive director or designee may conduct an impartial mediation of the complaint by offering the complainant and the respondent an opportunity to negotiate a no-fault predetermination settlement for the purpose of amicably resolving the complaint prior to full investigation.